Make a difference as a Youth Commissioner

Description

The country youth services are looking for highly motivated young people who want to make a difference, to become Youth Commissioners. Volunteers taking up this role will:

- meet new people
- use their existing skills in a meaningful way
- gain transferable skills
- build their confidence
- gain a qualification – Young Essex Volunteering Awards, Bronze, Silver or Gold
- be rewarded with activity days
- influence how money is spent on activities for young people
- learn how to be an active member of interview panels
- add positively to their CV and college or university applications.

Volunteers must be aged 13-19, or up to 25 if they consider themselves to have special education needs or disabilities (SEND).
