Promote the work of a charity supporting the visually impaired

Description

A local charity that supports people who are visually impaired needs a new member for its 'Ambassador Group', which promotes the work of the organisation.

The Ambassador group meets regularly to develop new ideas as to how to increase involvement and help improve fundraising. It engages with local businesses, schools and other organisations.

The role of the volunteer will depend on their own skills, interests and time available. Skills required are:

- enthusiasm
- good communicator and listener
- patience and empathy
- fun-loving
- good team player.

Please note: Volunteer Uttlesford has a total of over 200 opportunities available, only a few of which are featured on this website. Contact us for information on other volunteer roles.
