Drive visually impaired people to events

Description

A local charity that supports people who are visually impaired needs owner-drivers to assist with transporting its members to activities organised by the charity. These include home visits, monthly coffee mornings, social outings, exhibitions of visual aids, equipment and technology, and other events.

The hours and schedule would be arranged to suit volunteer availability. Mileage and parking expenses will be reimbursed.

Skills required:

- full, clean driving licence
- full insurance
- certified roadworthy vehicle
- good communicator and listener
- patience and empathy.

Please note: Volunteer Uttlesford has a total of over 200 opportunities available, only a few of which are featured on this website. Contact us for information on other volunteer roles.
